

The Tunnel Rats Band

Tunnel Rats Music began as a unique collaboration of three individuals from different decades whose paths crossed at a Bluegrass Jam, changing our journey forever. Building on his 2013 CD, Vietnam: The Journey, Vietnam veteran, Sid Orr sought musicians with a desire to help others to co-write his second CD. He found fellow Bluegrass players, Robin Daniel and Libby Wilson, and together we pooled our energy and diverse input on the CD: Vietnam: The Journey Continues which released in 2016.

Following the success of the two CDs - produced and performed by studio musicians at Johnson Brothers Studios in Covington, GA. - we received numerous invitations to perform around the southeast. Calling on fellow veterans, friends and Bluegrass musicians, we formed The Tunnel Rats Band.

We use our music to honor and raise awareness of issues facing our veterans and those returning from active duty. We entertain audiences with an Americana blend of songs that span Bluegrass, Folk, Southern Rock, Blues, and Country, sprinkled with a variety of our own original songs.

Although most of our performances are crafted for general audiences, we offer several shows designed specifically to honor Veterans including a Vietnam Veteran Tribute show which debuted in Blairsville at the Union County Fine Arts Theater, October 2017.

Since 2017 The Tunnel Rats performed at events such as, The Seabees Military Ball, The 27th Annual Creeper Car Show, Vogel State Park, American Legion Post 82, Semper Fi Purple Heart Cruise Fundraiser, the Georgia Vietnam Veterans Annual Picnic, and A Salute to America's Veterans Concert, Everett's Bluegrass Music Barn, and various retirement communities and other non-profit/charity events.
